IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

GUARDIANSHIP PETITION NO.182 OF 2005

Ms.Uma Nattu Petitioner

Mr.s.G.Walam for petitioner.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 29th March 2006

PC :

1. I am informed that the affidavit proving service has been filed and the notice has been duly served.

2. The request made by the petitioner to appoint her as guardian of the minor is not opposed. The father and mother of the minors have expired. The petitioner is sister of the two minors. Her deceased parents having expired, she has approached this Court for a limited relief namely that the dues of the petitioner’s mother with the Central Railway Employees Co-operative Credit Society Limited which is deposited with the Accounts Officer of this Court and invested, should be allowed to be dealt with by her.

3. Since none others have come forward despite notice and that all minors are going to be protected, there is no impediment in making the petition absolute in terms of prayer clause (a). Petition is, therefore, made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a).
